

Runi p

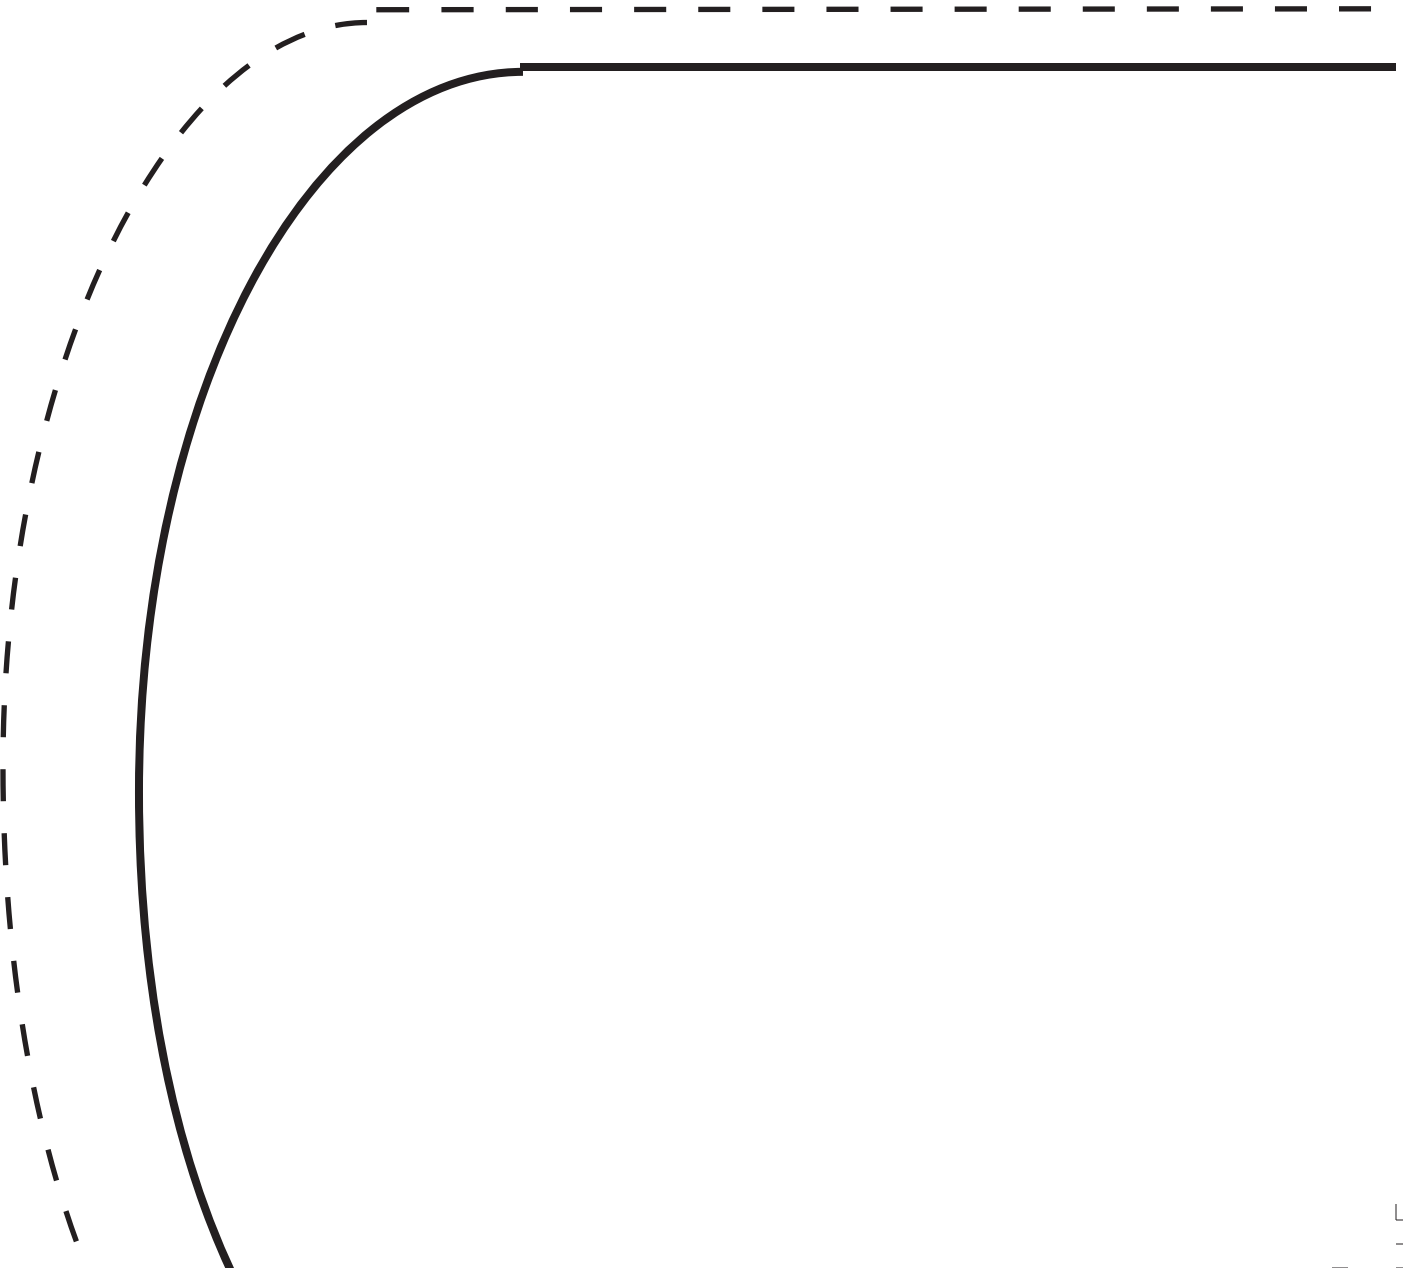

Materials:

1/2 yd. (45" wide) linen, acetate, cotton print c
1/4 yd. (45" wide) brocade, broadcloth or cott
4 yds. 1/4" or 1/2" bias tape
thread

Visit us online at NeighborhoodFruit.com

Running Away With the Circus Apron

pattern by Neighborhood Fruit, page 1 of 2

linen or crepe de chine (for apron and ties)
cotton print (for pocket and waistband)

Fruit.com

Directions:

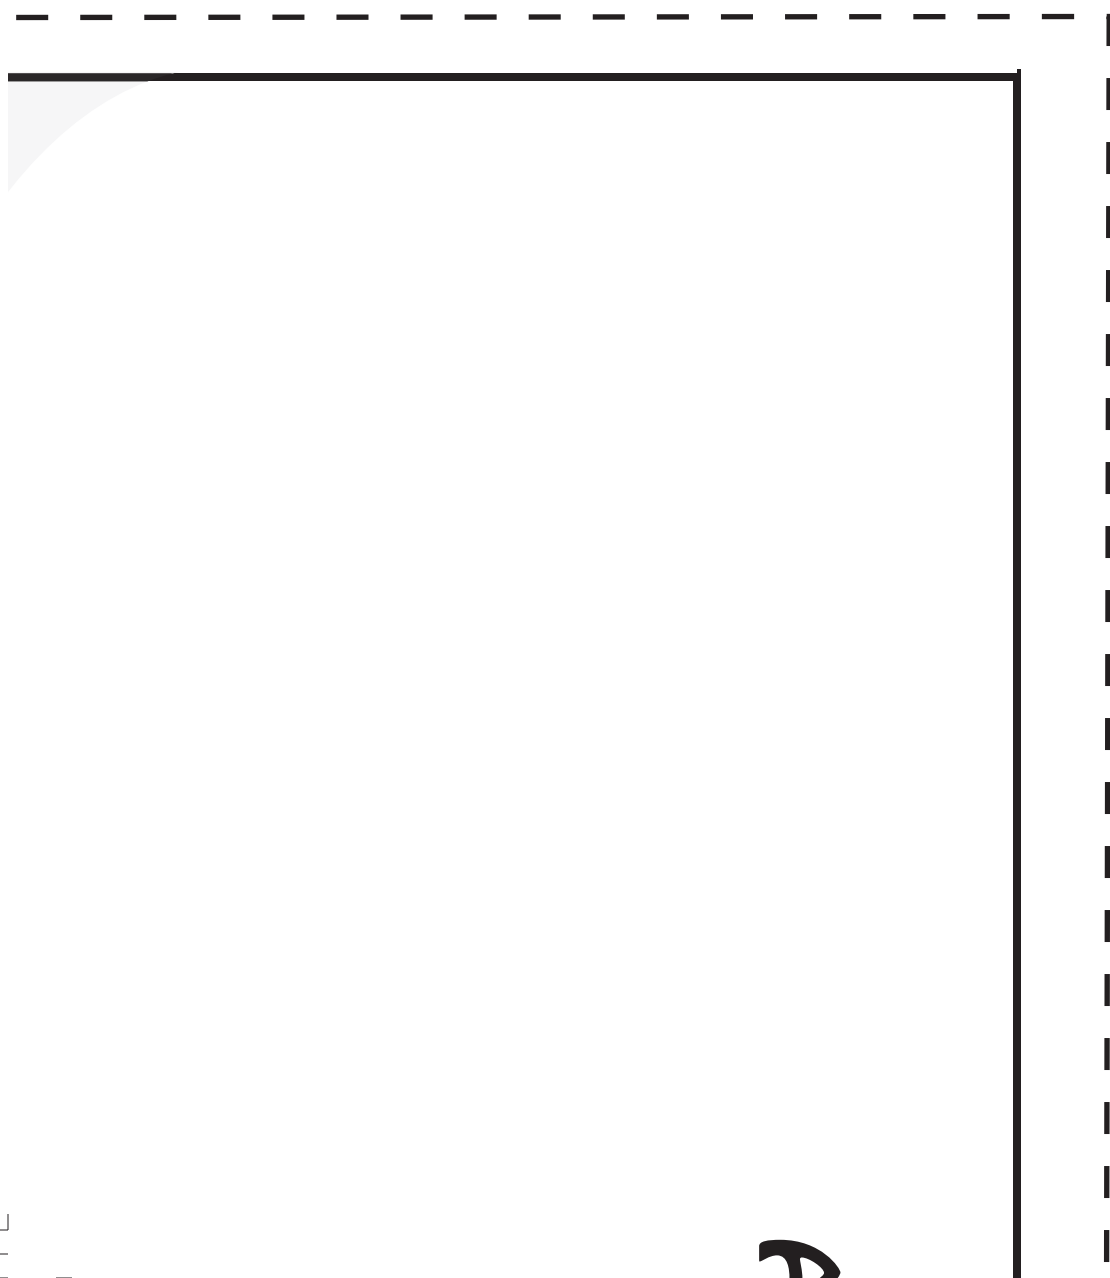

1. Print out and tape pattern pages together. Cut out inc
2. Pin pattern pieces to fabric. Note the places that the fabric shoul
3. Cut out fabric pieces. Don't forget to cut out two ties!
4. Iron the selvage of the waistband inward, and then iron the waistk
5. Make the ties: Iron the sides of the ties in by folding the selvage inv along the dotted line and iron it, and then repeat the folding, ironi it down.
6. Pin the bias tape to the top of the pockets, and sew using straight pocket to apron front, using pattern as a guide for placement. Sti two hard, do the bias tape first, then attach second).

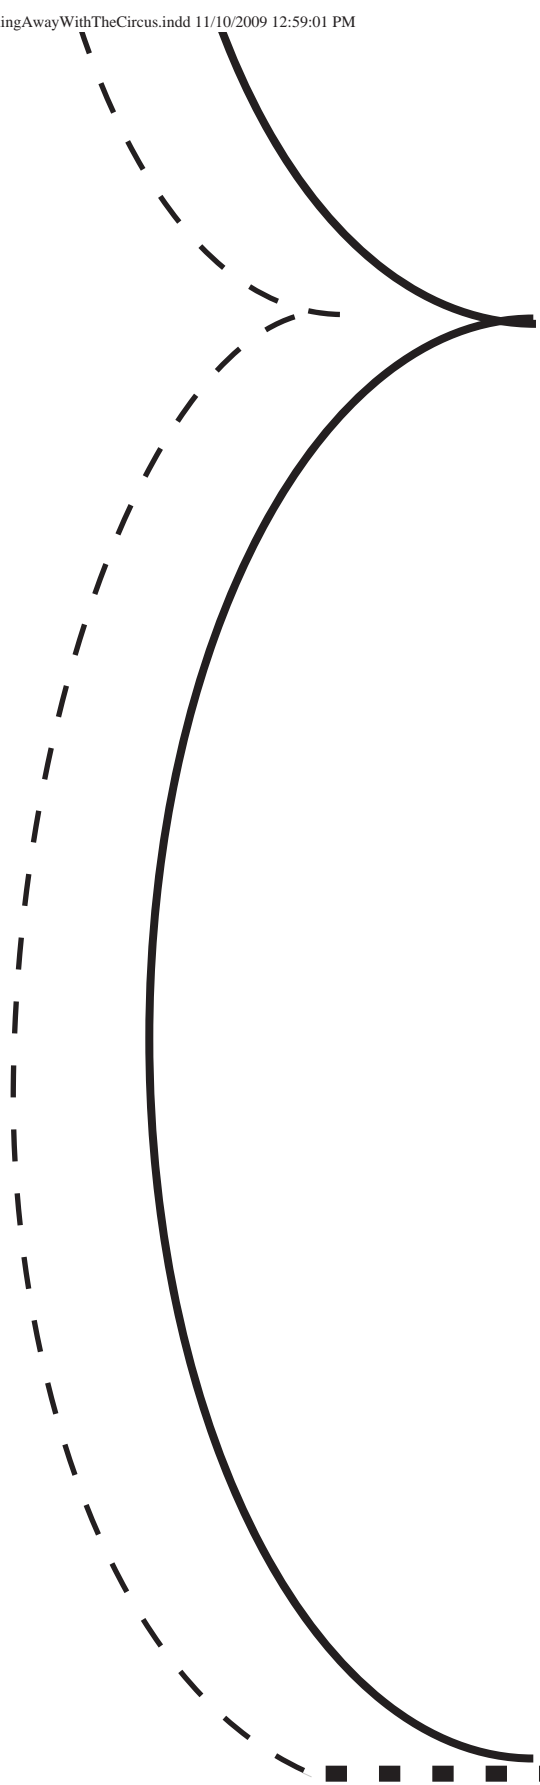

individual pattern pieces along dotted line. Tape parts A&B together of the ties. could be folded in half before pinning.

band in half lengthwise.

inward twice. On the first side sew this with a straight stitch. Fold the corner in ironing and stitching of the selvage, tucking the leg of the triangle in and stitching stitching. Pin the bias tape to the bottom of the pocket, and bottom of . Stitch the bias tape to the pocket while stitching the pocket to the apron (if it's

Fold Fabric

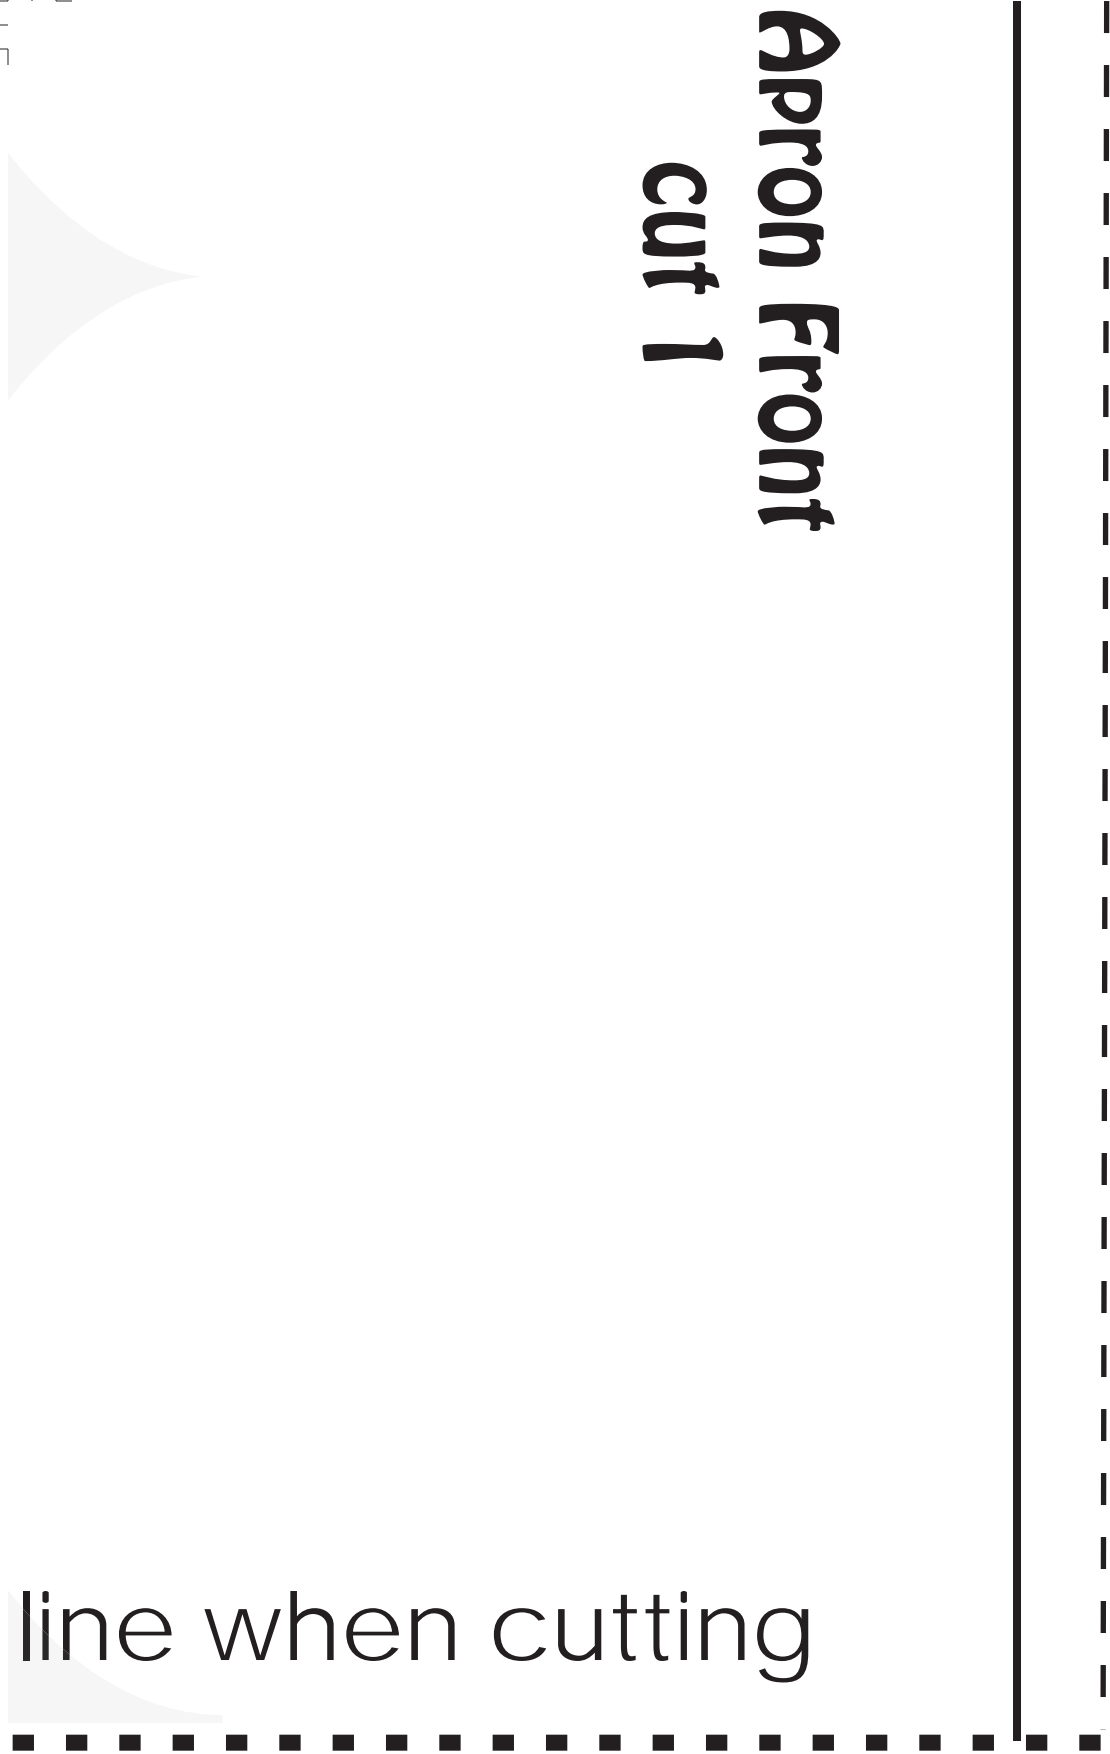

Pocket Placement

c in half and put fold against this li

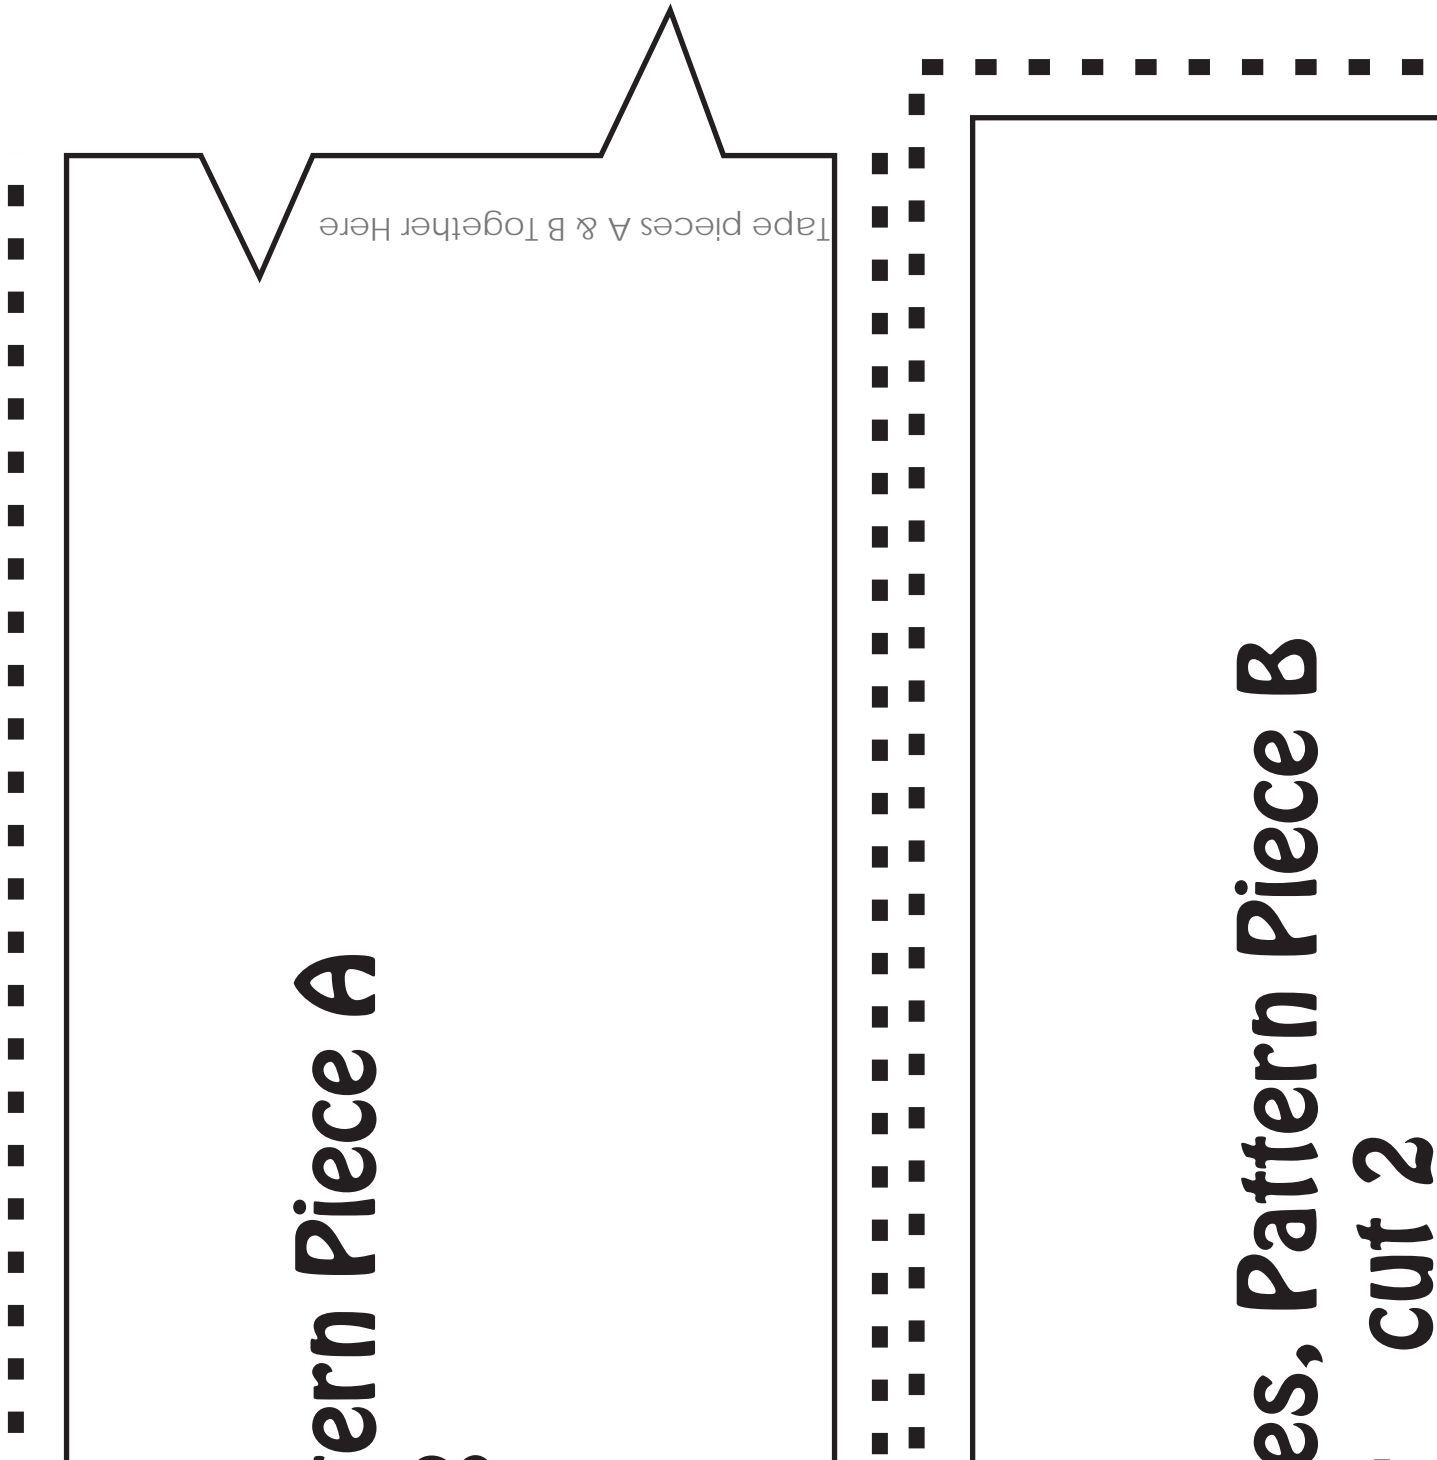

Apron Front cut 1

line when cutting

Directions (continued):

7. Pin and then sew the three middle seams dividing the pockets.
8. Pin the outside of the pockets to the outside of the apron front. Pin bias tape around the whole apron for
9. Gather the top of the apron: sew a quick row of straight stitches with the longest stitch length your machin
10. Attach the apron to the waistband: pin the gathered apron front inside the waistband. Sew together usi
11. Tuck the ties into the sides of the waistband and sew using straight stitches. Voila! You're done!

Pattern Piece A

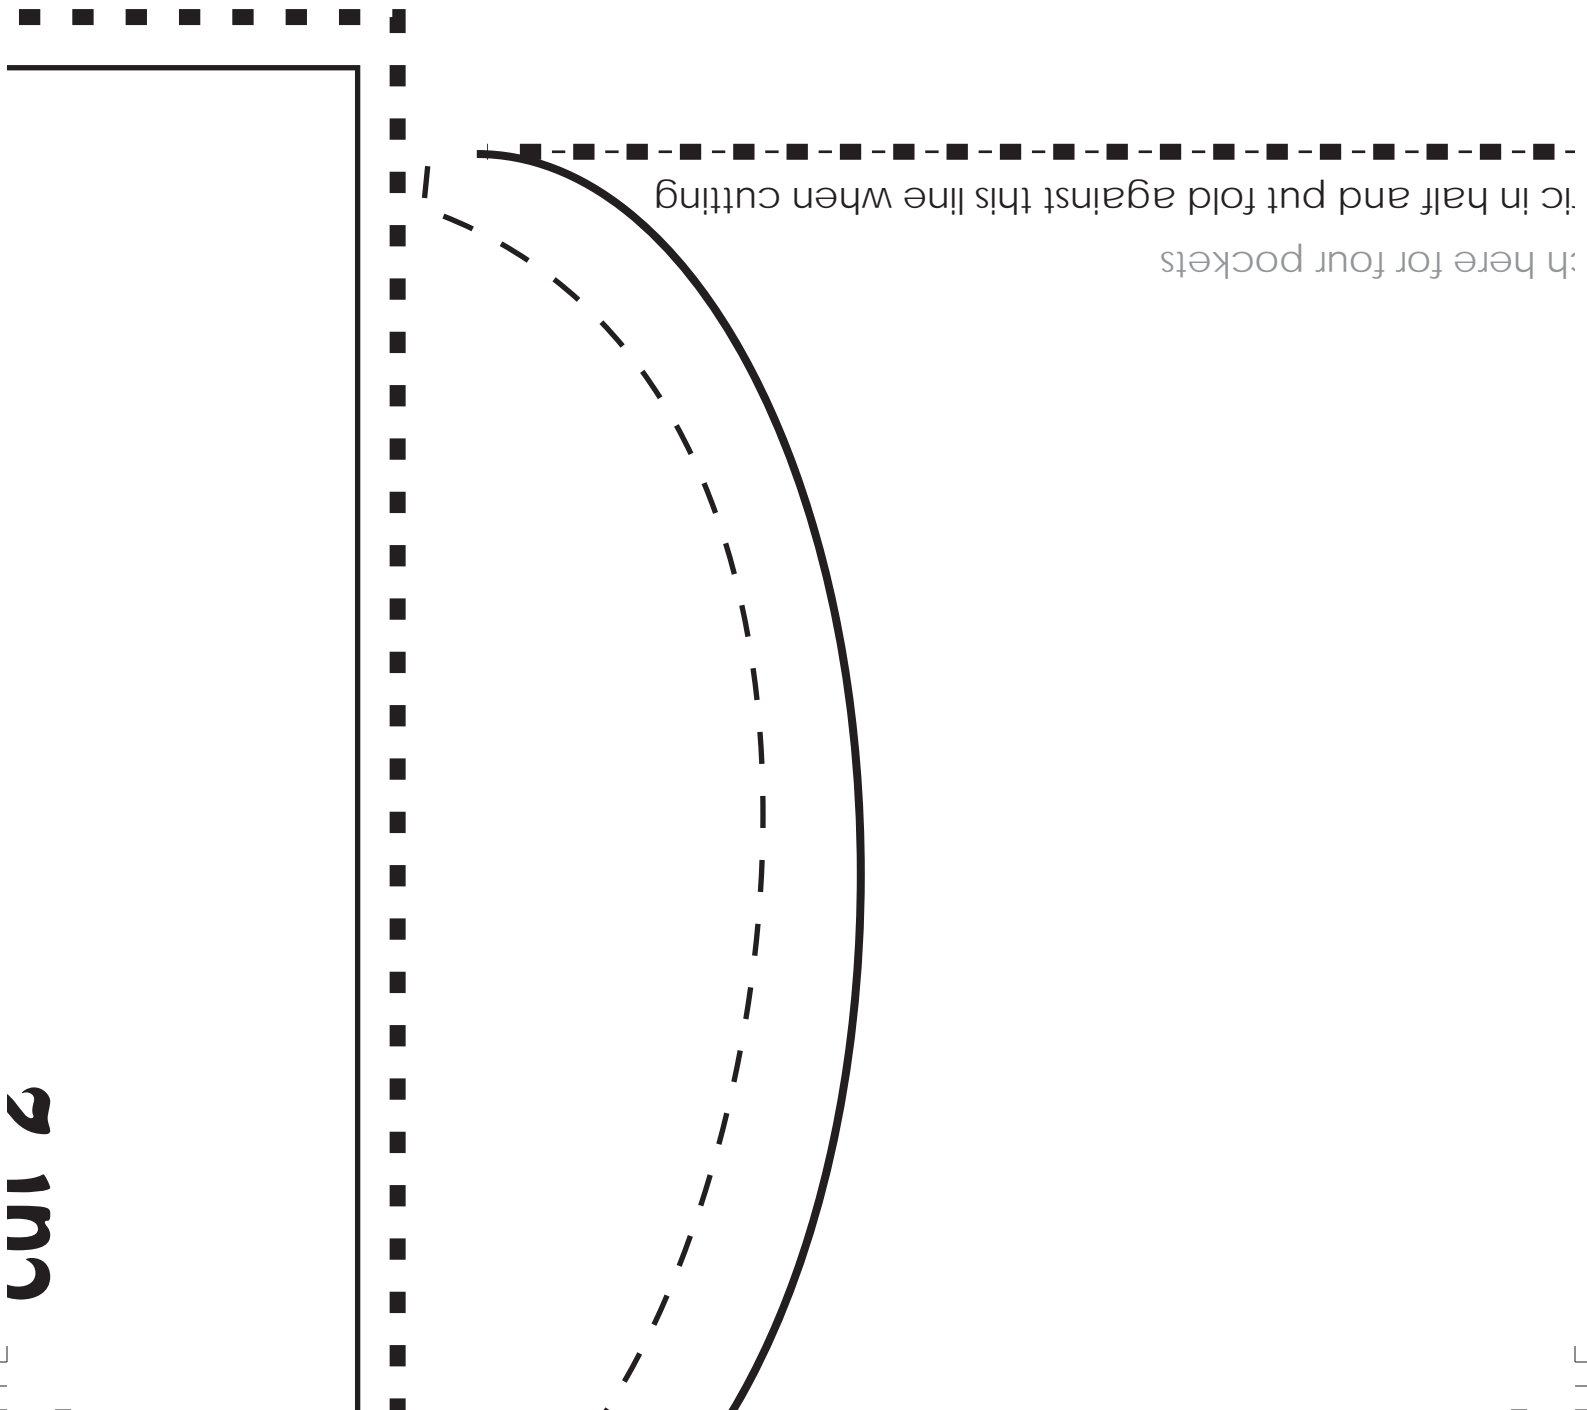

Pattern Piece B

cut 2

Running Away With the Circus Apron

pattern by Neighborhood Fruit, page 2 of 2

front, and stitch using a straight stitch.
chine has. Gently pull the thread on one side to gather the apron until it is the same length as the waistband, work the ga using straight stitches.

7 1m

gathers down to make them even.

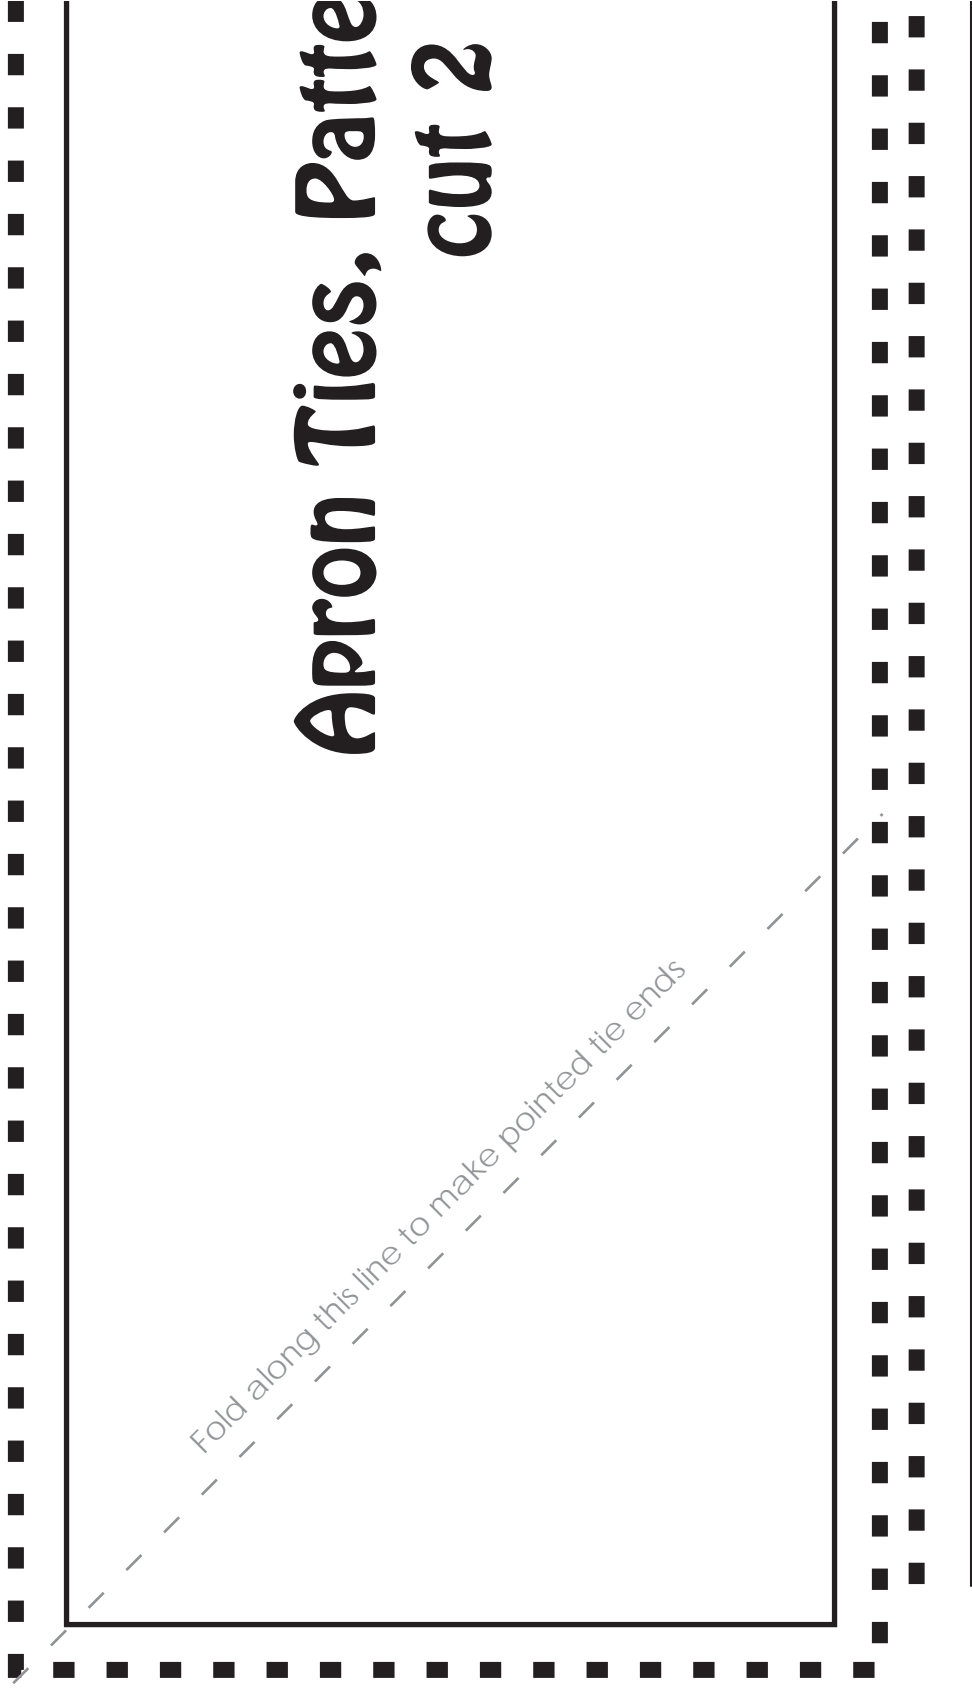

Fold Fabric
Stitch

Fold fabric in half and put

Waistband cut 1

Apron Ties, Patte cut 2

Fold along this line to make pointed tie ends

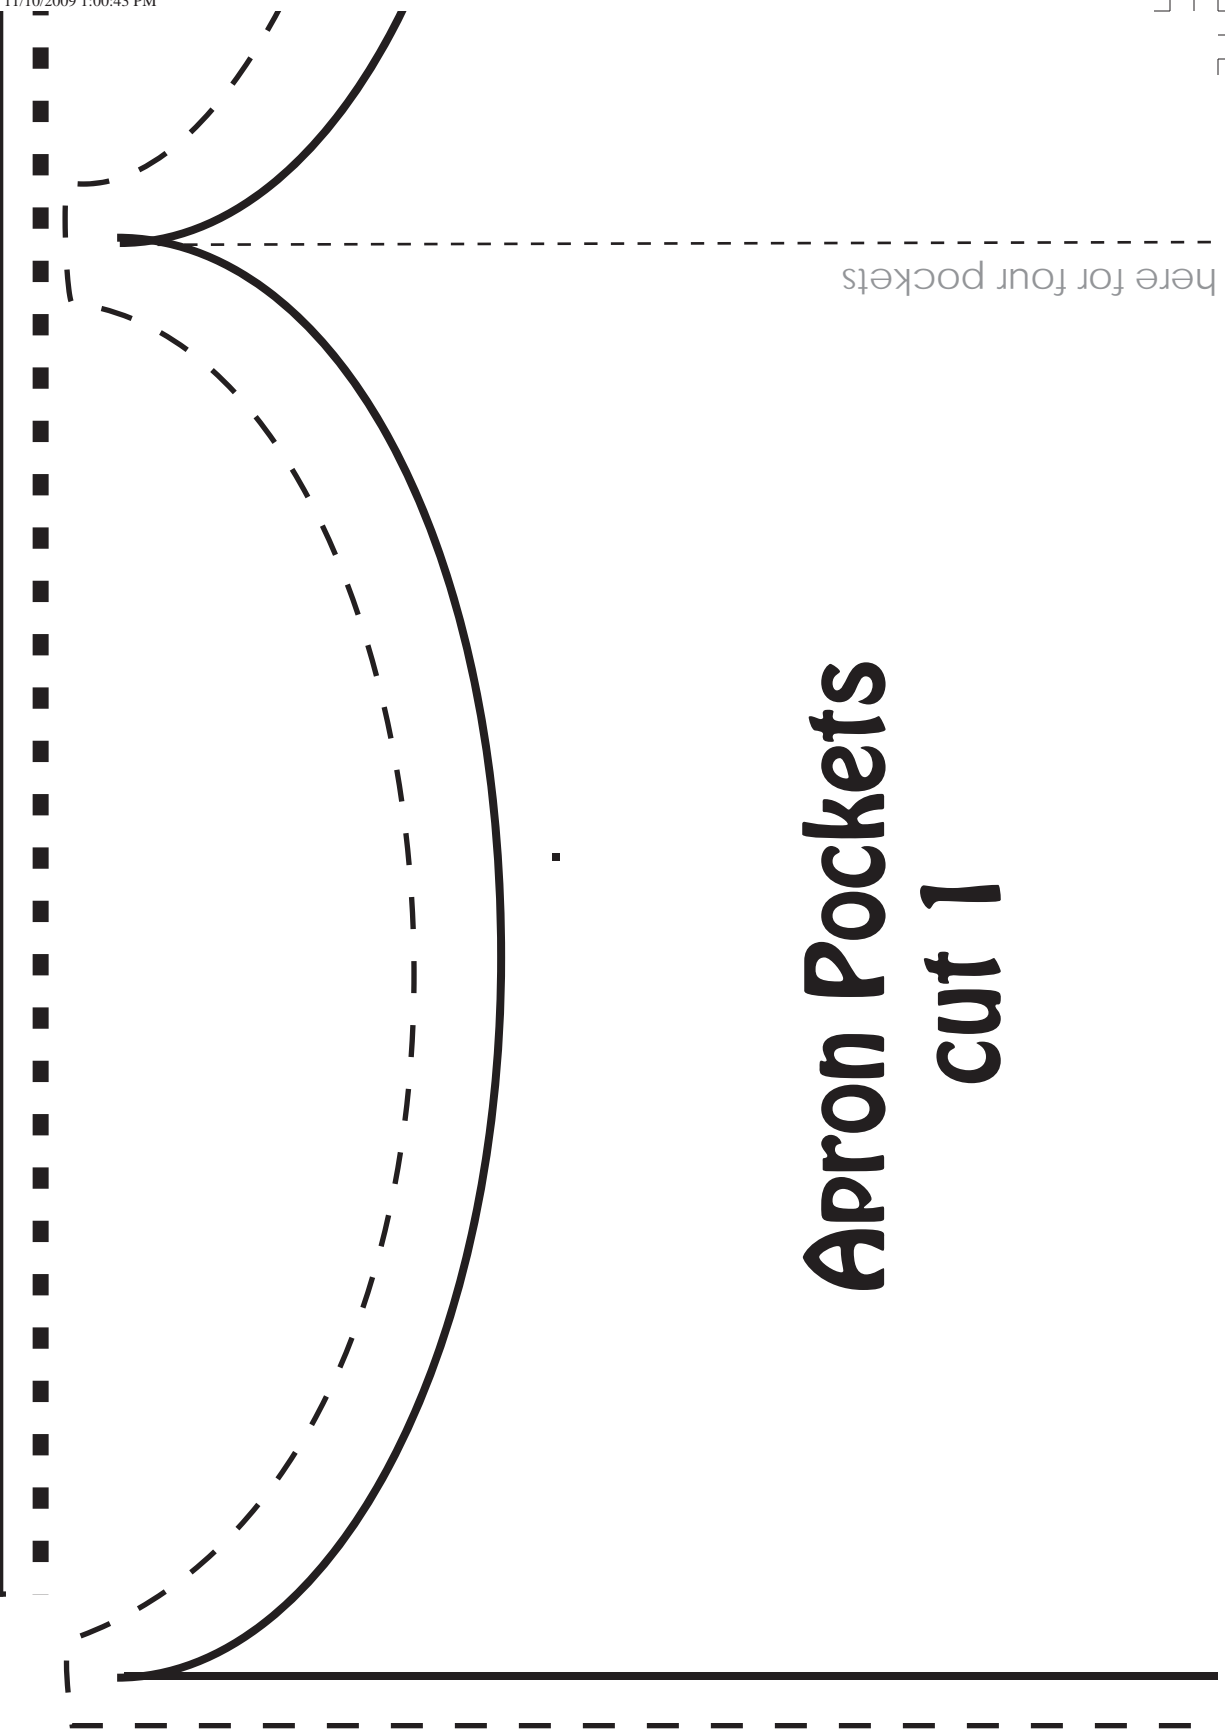

pieces A & B Together Here

Apron Tie

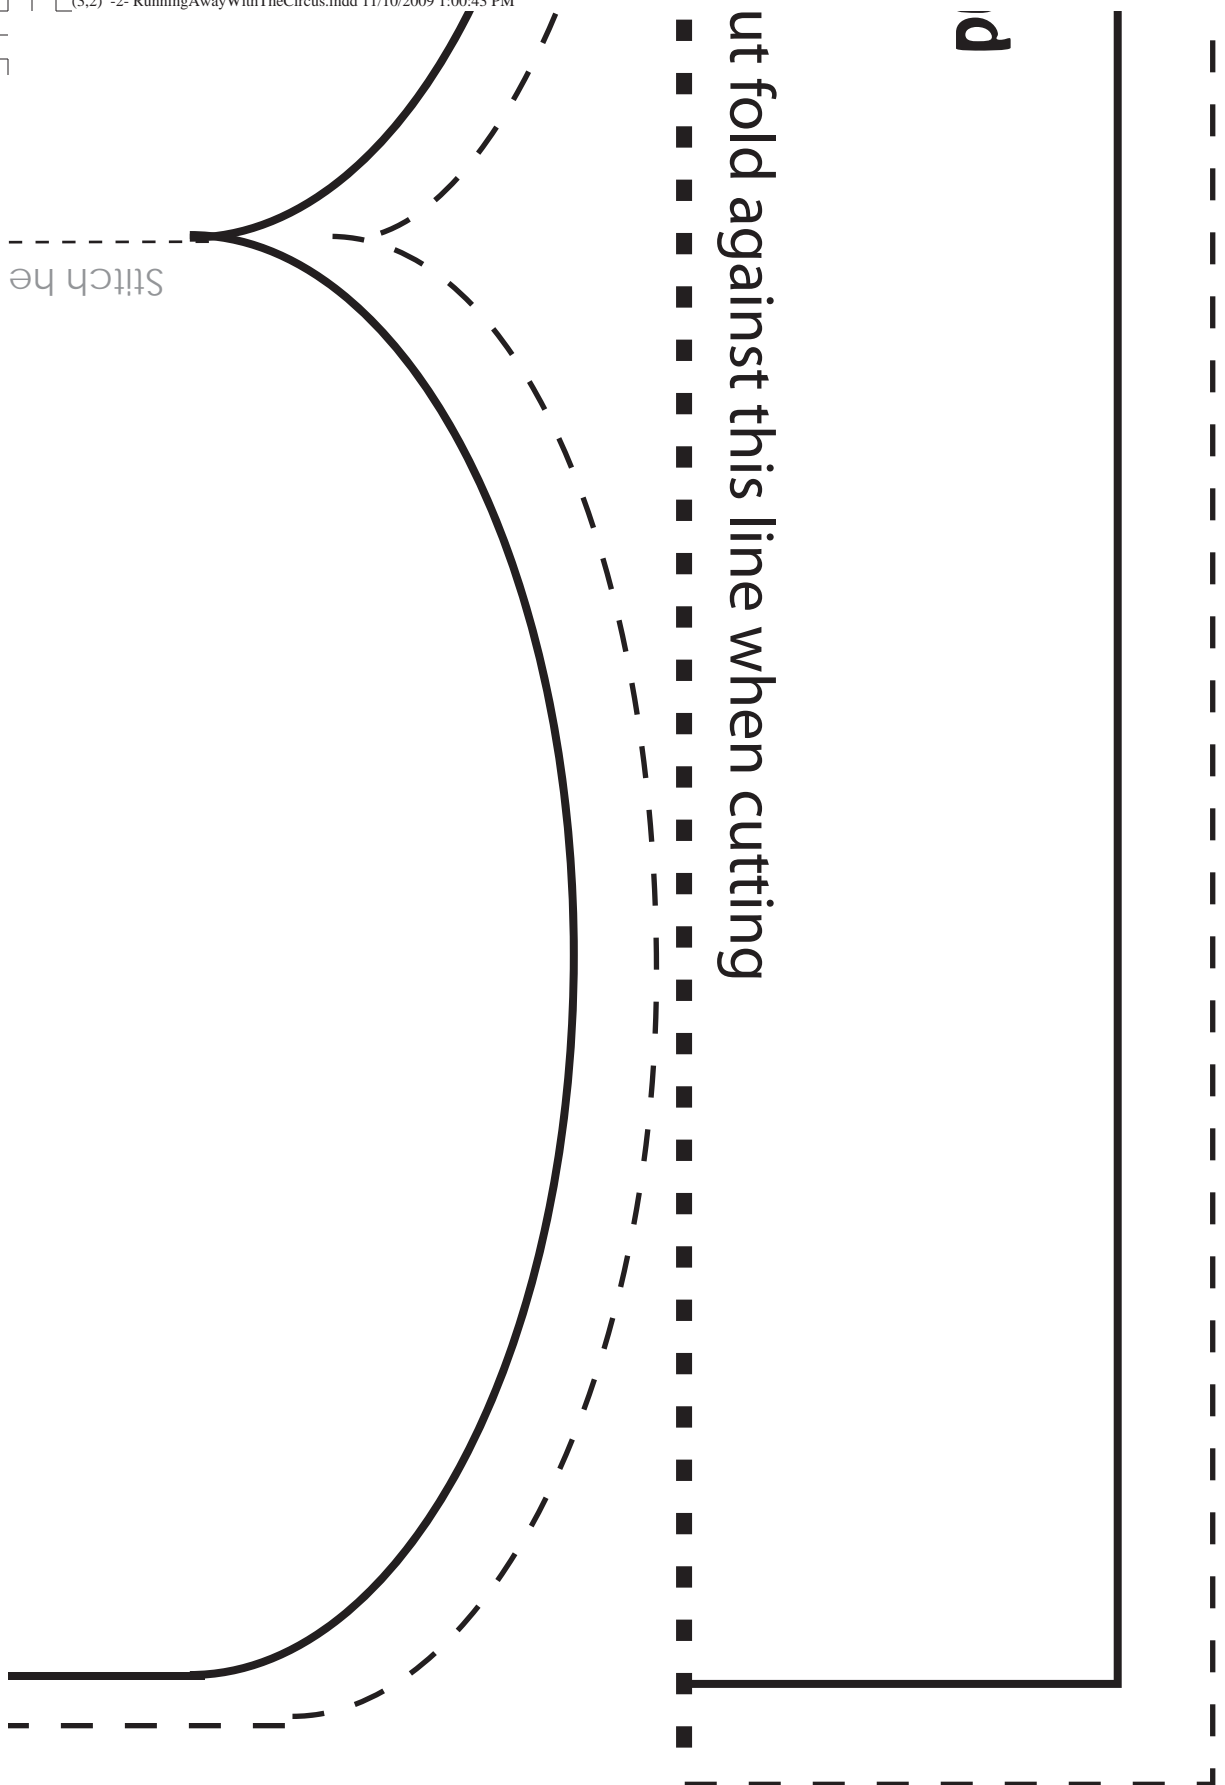

Tape pie

here for four pockets

Apron Pockets cut 1

Cut against this line when cutting

Stitch here

d